BENEFITMALL ACQUIRES WESTON GROUP BENEFITS, LLC

Second Purchase for BenefitMall this Year

(Dallas – June 6, 2006) BenefitMall, one of the nation’s leading broker services companies, announced today that it has acquired Weston Group Benefits, LLC, one of the largest independent general agencies serving the New York Metropolitan area.

Weston Group Benefits, LLC is headquartered in New York and is currently serving nearly 2,100 brokers and 25,000 in-force groups. They offer the largest diversified carrier contract portfolio in the tri-state area from regional leaders like GHI and HIP to large national carriers including Aetna, United Healthcare/Oxford Health Plans, HealthNet, Cigna and many others.

“Our commitment to continue expanding our business to support our Broker partners from coast to coast has never been stronger,” said Bernie DiFiore, BenefitMall President and Chief Executive Officer. “We are pleased to add Weston Group Benefits to our team, and are confident that they will enhance the service and products that we are able to offer Brokers throughout the nation.”

Weston Group Benefits Managing Directors, Michael Brachlow and Neal Edelson, both commented that, “the new partnership will enable us to continue providing our customers with both more opportunities to grow their business and even higher levels of service”.

This acquisition will further expand BenefitMall’s existing product offerings, reaffirm their commitment to the Northeast region, and reinforce their position as the largest employee benefits general agency in the nation.
